Buckeystown Church Parsonage
Buckeystown
Private

C. 1900

The Buckeystown Church Parsonage is a very good example of regional vernacular Carpenter Gothic architecture. The scroll and spindle work of the decorative porch on the front of the building is one of the finest examples in Buckeystown.

The building which has always served as the church parsonage to the adjacent Methodist Church differs in no way to the residences built at the same time in the white sections of Buckeystown.

Although the exact building date is unknown, it is presumed that it was constructed on land donated to the church by the Baker family in 1900.

DESCRIBE THE PRESENT AND ORIGINAL (IF KNOWN) PHYSICAL APPEARANCE

The Buckeystown Church Parsonage is a frame two and one-half story cross gable residence which faces north from the south side of Old Route 80 in Buckeystown.

The principal facade is three bays wide. The main entrance, a replaced paneled door with storm sash is located in the second bay. Occupying the remaining bays on the first and second level are 1/1 windows which replaced earlier 2/2 windows. All windows which are decorated by decorative wood arches are flanked by louvered shutters. Two windows are located side by side in the second bay on the second level. A small Palladian window is centered in the front gable.

Extending across the front of the residence, three bays wide, is the original decorative Carpenter Gothic frame porch with delicate scroll and spindle work. Lattice work decorates the area underneath the porch.

The main block of the building is two bays deep. A two story original addition extends to the southwest rear of the building. A two story open porch is located on the east side of the addition.

The entire residence is built on a low random stone foundation. The original frame building has been covered with aluminum siding. It is covered by a replaced asphalt roof with plain boxed cornice.

One corbeled chimney straddles the gable on the west end of the building.

The building has undergone minor changes and is an important contribution to this section of Buckeystown.
